Overview
 We have connects if needed to help with emotional intelligence, because having a healthy mind; you can understand, is having a wealthy mind; you can monetize, with our partner WELL LYFE STUDIOS LLC. Our ability to train our minds to work for us rather than against us dates back to 2014. Being that I am the sole member of this company my experiences and knowledge are the assets and selling points for my company which is why we begin with consultations. I want to do more than public speaking and I want to take investing to new heights. This Company's approach is that we see the people as the investment and not the idea, and in order to achieve our vision for healthier and brighter black communities; we do what it takes by any means nescary. As it relates to their financial well being, we partner with many non-profits and rescoures to make sure they are equipped to be successful after we have built their product or service. Capital in the business world is like kryptonite to black dreams and the application of knowlegdge is the achilles heel. We say not anymore. We truly practice what we believe. When our clients start make advancements in our advocacy program, then we can initiate more intentional solutions because they are proving the have what it takes to be successful. Black dreamers want a legacy. We want to ensure that there are no barriers to entry when building wealth. In our communities far too many people ignore that black dreams are destroyed from the overwhelming proverty and lack of representation. Black Dreams are the fantastic pontential of the Young Black Community and we hyper focus or services in the form Capital, Resource, and IP protection, while they retain Creative Control.
